It was a smaller than usual show, with approximately 30 horse/rider combinations. We still had enough to use both rings, but the days ended early. The show was also unusual for a Recognized Show in that the largest classes were the Intro Level. I was a scribe again for this Recognized Show, I find it to be a good learning experience.

The highlight of the show for me was the Freestyle class. There were only 3 rides, but they were all lovely. Leah Nelson did a cool one with jazzy music, which took first place.

Christina Steenekamp was again our gracious and efficient show secretary, with Kathi Marshall doing a superb job as Show Manager. These two ladies have done every show this year. These jobs entail a tremendous amount of volunteer labor, please thank these ladies when you see them next. Christina has said that she would like to actually ride at next years shows, so we will be looking for a new show secretary for the recognized shows. Put your thinking caps on, and let Kathi Marshall know if you are interested.

2022 NWDA Fall Classic I & II

by Claudia Schoendorf

Show Secretary extraordinaire Christina Steenekamp and Master of Ceremonies; Show Manager Kathi Marshall again did a masterful job organizing the August 6 & 7th Schooling Show in Iron River WI. The show had a good turnout of 61 horse/rider combinations, which included 33 JR/YR riders, which is almost our stall capacity.

Both the Dressage rings and the Jumping ring were kept busy all day. This year we featured a Championship class that required qualifying scores from a previous show to enter. Qualifying scores could be earned at any Schooling or Recognized show. Championship Classes were offered in Western Dressage, Intro, Training Level, First and Second Level and above. We will be doing it again next year at the August Schooling show. To find out more about it please see the 2022 Omnibus, Fall Classic show bill.

The competitors' party after the show on Saturday is always a fun event. It's where all the fabulous prizes were given out and High Point Winners announced.
